

"Put a paw print in your heart!"

Since 1967, the D/FW Humane Society has rescued, fed, sheltered and found homes for thousands of animals. The shelter does not receive any city, state or federal funding and survives solely from donations and fundraising activities. The DFW Humane Society is a no-kill shelter.

Irving Animal Care Campus

GRAND OPENING
MARCH 27, 2010
1PM-5PM

Cats get new kitty perches and dogs get new digs when D/FW Humane Society of Irving, Inc., and Irving Animal Services moves into the new state-of-the-art Irving Animal Care Campus.

This shared campus is the first of its kind in Texas to house a no-kill non-profit animal sheltering organization and a city's animal services division.

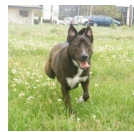

The City of Irving is coordinating the Grand Opening events.

CERTIFIED VOLUNTEERS may tour February 13 at Noon. RSVP required on Volunteer Events Registration link.

ANOTHER TOUR DATE will be set to accommodate the many volunteers busy at the Feb 13 Irving Mall Adoption event.

Crafty Volunteers

Brook B. keeps finding new ways to utilize her incredible creative talents to benefit the pets of DFWHS. Our fabulous Doggie Donation Cape is one example. This eye-catching coat grabs attention and money at the same time! Brook's latest creations are Fortune Cookie Boxes she sells at craft shows; proceeds go to the DFWHS pets!

Connie A. surprised herself with a hidden talent. She created picture frames and has donated proceeds of $485 in the past few months. Connie also wields a camera, taking great pictures of DFWHS cats for web bio pages, and she's editor of the Paws Street Journal newsletter.

Do you have a creative side?

New Certified Adoption Counselors

Christie M. Connie A. Felicia S.
Jennifer E. Kelli E. Phil S.

Congratulations! After serving on adoption teams and being recommended by team leaders, those listed above completed a special 3-hour counselor training class.

Brook B. Christine C. Karren M.
Marcy M. Paulette B. Rick E.

These previously certified Counselors attended refresher training this month.
